The mission of the YLSC is to develop and inspire leadership, civic responsibility, and community involvement in Sandoval County youth by providing opportunities for education, exposure, and interaction.

Participation in YLSC carries the responsibility of leadership. Participants are expected to demonstrate the highest standards of behavior and to set an example for others to follow. This Code of Responsibility is intended to describe minimum acceptable standards and the consequences of failure to meet these standards. Those who fail to observe these standards will be held accountable for their actions. This Code is applicable to all participants in YLSC including class members, adult volunteers, and staff. This Code is applicable at all times.

YLSC seeks to encourage person growth and development of the skills and behavior required of good leaders. By participating in Youth Leadership activities, all participants acknowledge that their actions are subject to this Code. By permitting a class member to participate, the class member's parent(s) gives their consent to the applicability of this Code.

- 1. Barring an emergency attendance at all events is mandatory.
- 2. Appropriate behavior is expected of all participants within the parameters of law and local school policies. A participant may be suspended from participation if such action is determined by the YLSC staff to be necessary to protect the safety and security of persons or property or to avoid disruption of a class event. The disciplinary action selected will depend on the nature of the offense and the facts and circumstances in which the violation occurred.
- 3. We expect the highest moral standards in behavior and dress. YLSC will provide polo shirts that students will be required to wear at each event. Jeans, khakis, capris and shorts are all acceptable. Ball caps and hats are not acceptable for any indoor activities.

Students will be visiting various locations all over Sandoval County and the surrounding communities (including Santa Fe). Riding the Rail Runner Express will be one of the means of transportation.
6. The goals for YLSC programs include promoting friendships and values as well as sharing significant learning experiences. Therefore, the YLSC staff insists that all members of our program treat one another with respect and kindness. Participation is contingent upon the appropriate and cooperative behavior of each student. Disruptive or inappropriate behavior will lead to immediate dismissal from the program.
