

BOWLING FOR LITERACY
At TENPINS & More
Saturday, January 28, 2012
12-3pm

$1000 a team?? Really??

No. The Rio Rancho Observer accidently printed that on Sunday, Jan 22nd. As previously mentioned a fun day of bowling is just $25 a person. That adds up to $100 for a team of 4.

We now have at least 8 teams participating in our upcoming Bowling For Literacy event, including The Academy Strikers (from Academy Physicians) and a team from CNM. Thank You for helping us promote adult literacy and help our students learn to read and write English. See you Saturday!

We are also grateful to Hinkle Family Fun Center (Miniature Golf), Planet Beach ($25 gift Certificate), Hot Tamales Restaurant (Dinner For two) and Don Chalmers Ford (Free Oil Change) for providing gifts to be given away at our Bowling For Literacy event! We will also have a Free Hot Dog for everyone from Der Wienerschnitzel !

Thanks for making our bowling event more fun and for supporting the ReadWest Adult Literacy Program! Every business or organization with a team, either fielded or sponsored, will be recognized in our newsletter in February, which is mailed out to over 250 of our Tutors in Rio Rancho and Albuquerque.

There is still time! Please let us know if you all will have a Rio Rancho Regional Chamber team! If you want to sponsor a team of students and volunteers or to donate a door prize for this event; we also want to hear from you! Email us at readwest@earthlink.net, or give us a call at 892-1131 to sign up by Thursday, Jan 26th.

The registration is attached. If you would like to join the fun, a team of four people can participate for only $25 each! This is a bargain for a fun day of bowling while helping families address their literacy challenges. At this fundraiser it doesn't matter if you are a good bowler either because if you knock just nine pins down, you get a strike! It is called Nine Pin Alley. First, Second, and Third place Trophies, donated by Accolades Trophies, will be awarded to each team, with individual medals awarded to the players.

Can't get a team together? Individuals are welcome to come on Saturday. We will put you on a team if we can.

The money we raise will go to help ReadWest teach students to read, write and communicate in English. Illiteracy leads to poverty! Last year our 200 volunteer tutors helped over 480 adults achieve their literacy goals. Now they are on the road to success for themselves and their families.

ReadWest also has group classes for parents at two of our local elementary schools and soon these English as a Second Language students will be able to communicate with their child's teachers, help their children with their homework, and become better role models for their families. We want to be able to help more people, and provide more groups like this in our Schools!

Thanks so much for allowing me to send this to you and for your support of ReadWest, serving Rio Rancho and the west side of Albuquerque for 22 years!
