RRRCC staff and/or Ambassador Chair will accept applications, review candidates, and present their selection to the RRRCC Board. All Ambassadors will receive the Ambassador Sash or have the option of purchasing the approved, distinctive "Red Coat" to be worn at all activities. The red coat or sash is required at all ambassador calls. Cost of a coat is currently $150.00 new. The coat can be purchased at Home Town Threads (contact is Debbie Turner, phone 994-9197); the jacket is a Hardwick Blazer (Artillery Red Regent, is the color). The Ambassador sash is included in the first-year ambassador dues.

Activities

The RRRCC staff will coordinate activities for the Ambassadors. Participation will include ribbon-cutting ceremonies, grand openings, membership development and additional functions deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors. Individual Ambassadors are encouraged to be involved in various business and civic activities within the community. While personal stands may be taken on issues, care must be taken to ensure their stand does not represent the Ambassadors or the Chamber in general unless asked to do so by the Chamber President or Chairman of the Board.

Eligibility

A candidate for membership must be employed in a managerial/supervisory position of their Chamber member organization and must live or conduct business in the Rio Rancho Regional community. Ambassadors are elected as individuals and must be Chamber members in good standing either through their company or as an individual.
